IT IS A TAMMANY ACT.

A PARTISAN CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BILL PASSED.

THE MEASURE TINKERED UP BY MAYNARD FORCED THROUGH THE SENATE BY A PARTY VOTE-MR. SAXTON EX-

POSES ITS TRUE NATURE.

FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE. Albany, Jan. 27.-The Democratic majority in the Senate to-day passed their partisan Constitutional Convention bill: Senators McMahon and Walker, who were opposed to the bill, were "whipped for the measure by their Democratic as sociates at a caucus which was held for the purpose, and they meekly voted for the bill.

Senator Sexton fittingly termed the bill a Tam many act to elect a Tammany Hall Constitutional

"One part of a Legislature's work is to correct the errors made by a previous Legislature, and this holds of Democratic Legislatures. This Constitutional Convention bill illustrates this feature of legislative life. It is the fourth bill of the nature which has been brought before this Senate within year. In your first bill, which became a law, you the Governor could appoint certain delegates. We Republicans told you such a provision was uncon stitutional, and after referring the law privately to the Judges of the Court of Appeals you found that statement to be true. Then you came here this year and rushed through another bill, in which you provided for a minority representation in a certain way which we pointed out was unconstitutional. After thinking over the matter for three weeks you also concluded that it was unconstitutional and recalled from the Governor. Then you passed Senator McMahon's bill providing for minerity representation in another way. That bill, in my judg was constitutional, but after passed it through the Senate hoded that it too was unconstitutional, and dropped Now at last you have placed before us the which, in my opinion, you all the time intended to You have provided for the election of fifteen delegates at large, because you think by your 100,000 majority below Harlem Bridge and by passing a majority below Hariem Bridge and by passing a personal-registration act disfranchising the Republican farmers, you will be able to elect every one of your candidates for delegate at-large. You also are of the opinion that you will elect Democratic delegates in seventeen of the thirty-two Senate districts. would give you in the Constitutional Convention : clear majority of fifty-two votes. And most of that majority of fifty-two votes will come from Tammany Your senate districts are now massed in New York and Brooklyn, through your Legislative Appor tionment act. A majority of the members of convention will be from the cities of the State or from populations controlled by the city influence. convention will be dominated by Tammany Hall, and it will be a Tammany Hall Constitutional Convention. You have not granted any representation to the minority parties in the State, although they cas 66,000 votes at the last election. The bill is an unjust one and against the interests of the people of this State, and I therefore cast my vote against it. Senator Erwin said that the former Constitutional Convention bills had not been partisan, but this one It had been tinkered by Judge Maynard, the man whose hand gave the control of the State Legis lature to the Democratic party. "Will the Senate change its mind," said Senator Erwin, "at the dictation of the man who stole the Senate?"

Senator Edwards eloquently opposed the bill, saying, in part: "The Legislature should rise above parusan considerations when it arranges for the election of delegates to a Constitutional Convention. Did the Democrats who went to the war and fought at Gettysburg think of party? No; they put pairlotism above party. Since I have been here in the Senate I have beard nothing but 'party, party, party!' Two-thirds of the talk is about party. There should be less of party and more of the people. Minorities should be represented in this Constitutional Convention. As for represented in this Constitutional Convention. As for this bill, it is purely a parti-an measure, and I desire my vote recorded against it.

"It is all rot," said Senator McCarren, "this talk about disregarding partisan considerations in passing a Constitutional Convention bill. I hope that there will be a Democratic majority in the Constitutional Convention, for a majority in the Constitutional Convention, for a majority of the people of this State are Democrats."

Senator Cantor also said that he hoped there would be a Democratic majority in the convention. This was a plain confession of the partisan intent of the measure.

The bill was passed by a vote of 17 to 10. Not one of the Republican Senators voted for it.

EXCITEMENT ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

THE SPECULATION IN AMERICAN SUGAR RE-PINING COMPANY'S STOCK THE CAUSE.

The Stock Exchange only seldom witnesses the scene of excitement which attended the opening of the market yesterday. The hig speculation in the stock of the American Sugar Refining Company was the occasion for the sensation. The crowds which assemble for the opening at 10 o'clock in the morning to deal the stock filled the whole part of the eastern end of the Stock Exchange floor, and overflowed all around the millings that separate the brokers and their cleras and privileged subscribers. of brokers was nervously on the alert and an accidental sound that resembled the falling of the gavel of the chairman, formally declaring the Exchange open for business, started a roar of offers to buy or sel the actual time to begin trading. It would have been impossible to stop the mob-for that is what he almost may be called when once the shouting began. and for fifteen minutes perfect Bedlam raged. To talk about opening prices is almost absurd, for in the excited crowd a dozen different prices prevailed at the same time. The nominal first quotation was 126, against 125 at Thursday's close. It took less than a min-ute to reach quotations of 129, but after awhile the excitement died down and more reasonable methods total transaction in Sugar yesterday were 127, 144 shares, out of a total record of dealings in all stocks of 463,624 shares. From the early sales at 129, the price fell to 126 7-8 and then the market. after violent fluctations, rose to 129 3-4 and, closing at 128 7-8, showed a net gain for the day of 3 7-2

The Street is filled with gossip about the operators who have been hurt in the big scramble of the shorts to cover which sent Sugar stock flying upward. Nothing is definitely known, however, except that Deacon" S. V. White has been the recognized leader of the bull party. Mr. White won fame in the spring of 1854 by a successful cornering of Delaware, Lacka-wanna and Western stock. He achieved fresh renown last year by clearing off a debt of $1,000,000 out of successful leadership of the market, after his failure in the early autumn of 1891. Mr. White was the lender Sugar stock on its recent rise to 125, at which point a bear pool was formed with the view of breaking Enormous sales for the short account were made on Thursday and Sugar was broken to 121. It railied sharply before the close and the boomers of the stock had to pay 1-2 per cent for the loan of it over night. The loaning rate was 1-4 per cent and the bears recognized their defeat sufficiently to buy enormously all day. The list of bear cripples cannot be learned. Addison Commack, the old-time bear leader, is said by one stery to have surrendered Thursday night and to have given an order to 1. & S. Wormser to cover at the opening yesterday at the market. There are well informed Wall Sieee to cover at the opening yesterday "at the market." There are well informed Wall Stree market." There are well informed Wall Stree market. There are well informed Wall Stree market and received a "tip" to get out of the way of the "bull engine" a few days ago, and that he is among those who can look with moderate calminess upon the losses that the rank and file of the hear operators have been compelled to submit to.

BISHOP WIGGER SILENT.

HE REFUSES TO DISCUSS THE CHARGES.

A NUMBER OF HIS PRIESTS, HOWEVER, FREELY TALK ABOUT THE TRIBUNE'S ARTICLE.

Bishop Wigger was met by a Tribune reporter at the railroad station at South Orange at 9 o'clock last night. As the Bishop stepped from the train the reporter spoke to him and asked: "Have you heard, Bishop Wigger, of any charges being made again you in connection with the Bayonne Church trouble?" 'I have not read the morning papers," answered the Bishop. "I went away from the college early to-day, and I have so much writing and other work papers." the article was printed in The Tribune yesterday and that it states that charges had been made to Mon signor Satolli to the effect that he had closed St. Thomas's Church and compelled the English-speaking people of that church to attend St. Henry's Church under a German pastor. The Bishop said : "I prefer to say nothing about it. I think it is "In a New-York evening paper to-night, the Rev. Father Killeen, of Eayonine, states in an interview that he built St. Thomas's Church to relieve his parish, and that you closed it against his protest; that it has been closed since, and that he has made an appeal against you." The Eishop responded: "He has; has het Well, I Would I mind saying where I have been to-day?

No. I have been to the celebration of my brother's fifty-third birthday. There are only two of us now, and I have to take time to see him. He lives in New-York, where I was born." "The Tribune says you have been notified to make answer to the appeal." "I prefer to say nothing, for if I answer one ques tion and decline to answer others, the declination would be accepted as an acknowledgment."

"Is the statement that you received a notice true?" "I cannot begin to answer all that is published, and therefore the safest way is to say nothing."

The Bishop was informed that members of the Bayonne church had been seen and had said that the new church was built upon misrepresentation to the Bishop, and that there being two churches the Bishop had done the best ne could, and to their satisfac tion, as the officiating priest preached in German and English. The Bishop, they thought, could settle the case satisfactorily. The reporter added: "One of these gentlemen was James Ryan and a other, J. O'Nell, who, I understand, is a trustee." "No," answered the Bishop, "It is not Mr. Ryan who is the trustee."

he would remain over Sunday at the college, as seven young men would be ordained priests and two deacons. A prominent layman of South Orange, who is i the use of his name, said that the charge of Cahensly-ism against Bishop Wigger was absurd on the face of He said : "I know of my own knowledge and from cussions that I have had with the Bishop that he is opposed to the Cahensly doctrine. Indeed, I doubt if there is a Catholic diocese in the whole country that is as free from the practical carrying out of this doctrine as is the diocese of Newark. There are only two German priests in the diocese that have English-speaking cures. One of these is Father Mendl, of Montelair, and the other is Father Gassner. of Elizabethport. Both of these priests speak English "It must be remembered that when a foreign priest comes to this country the learning of the English language is one of the points that is strennously insisted upon, and to a man that has no quired the ability to study in his theological career. It is not a difficult matter to learn sufficient English to be easily understood.

"Now as to this case of St. Thomas's Church in Bayonne that is made the basis of these charges. true facts have not been correctly stated to Archbishop Satolli or I am sure that he would not have issued the citations to Bishop Wigger. The facts are that the church was originally started not as a separate purish but as a mission of St. Henry's Church, and Father Egan was never the parish priest of the church, but only a curate of St. Henry's Church, sent to take charge temporarily of the comes to investigate the case and ascertains the exact facts, Bishop Wigger will be sustained after reading The Tribune's story of the charges, reso far as he knew, to every priest in the college.

"The Bishop has not spoken of the matter to me," the Vicar-General said, "nor to any other priest here, so far as I know, and, therefore, I know nothing about the matter. I understand that the case of the Bayonne churches was settled satisfactorily to all concerned some time ago, and I heard that the priest now in charge of the consolidated parish preaches in English and in German, and that the English speak ing people of St. Thomas's Church had accepted the There may be a few malcontents, however, but I have not been to Eavonne and cannot say. I understood that st. Thomas's Church was to se used for parechial school purposes, and that the people were satisfied, but I have no personal knowledge of this. If there were any new trouble in Ray-onne we would probably have heard of it here, but have not heard of any." Several priests of the Newark diocese in Newark yesterday were asked about the case. President Marshall, of seton Hall, said he had not heard of an appeal from the Bayonne church to Monsignor an appeal from the Bayonne church to Monsignor satelli. Another priest said that it was true, he believed, that the appeal had been taken, but that did not mean a trial for the Bishop, who would be only called upon to give his side of the case. "The matter," he added, "will be weighed and decided, and things will then go on as usual."

"No, I think not, but an not certain. It is my opinion, however, that Bishop Wigger will settle the case himself without allowing it to go to the Papal belegate."

case himself without allowing it to go to the Papal Delegate."

It was said by another priest that it was unjust to accuse Bishop Wigger of trying to "Germanize" his diocese. He was an earnest, conscientious man, and was simply backing in the tact necessary in his position. "I do not," said the priest, "book upon the matter as presenting a test case. It is simply one of local dispute to be settled before it can come to trial."

The Tribune article caused a sensation among the Roman Catholic clergy and laity in Newark, and there were large demands for copies of the paper at the newsstands. The text of the article, showing an intimate knowledge of the questions treated and apparently from the best authority, was accepted generally as presenting the true facts.

Father Corrigan was seen yesterday in Hoboken by a Tribune reporter in relation to the case. He said he knew nothing about the question, and positively refused to say anything further.

TRYING TO ECLIPSE HOLMAN.

THE SHAM ECONOMY IN THE POSTOFFICE BILL.

UTTER DISREGARD OF THE NEEDS OF THE SERVICE SHOWN BY THE HOU'E COMMITTEE

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Jan. 27.-It is evident that the Democratic majority of the House Committee on Postoffice and Post Roads has determined to emulate the example and if possible eclipse the record of Holman in regard to appropriations. It has again retion bill which, like the one it reported last year, has been framed in atter disregard of the requirements

the postal service, in the sufficiency and efficiency of which nearly every man, woman and child in the

As was shown in these dispatches at the time, the inadequate; so inadequate that it was subsequently increased more than $2,000,000 by the House and It recommended a total appropriation of $78,216,067, which included an item of $193,614 for special facilities on rallroad trunk lines, for which no eral and which was $2,301,000 less than the estimates, which amounted to $80,323,400. amount recommended by the committee for next year in the bill reported to-day is $83,869,357, which also includes the item of $193,614 for special facilities on trunk lines, for which no estimate has been sub-mitted by the Postmaster-General, and which, there-amount to $85,203,293.

It is easy to prove by a single item that the provisions recommended by the Democratic majority of the Postoffice Committee will be utterly inadequate to meet the requirements of the service—a fact which is undoubtedly known to Chairman Henderson and his Democratic colleagues. The estimate for inland mail transportation by railroads for next year amounted to $25,500,000 and the committee has recommended only $24,500,000. Now, the estimate submitted on the account last year was $23,933,657, which was $500,-000 more than the House committee recommended. The House and Senate subsequently increased the appropriation to $23,633,657, which was still $350,-000 less than the estimates submitted by the Postmaster General. One week ago to-day Mr. Sayers, of Texas, reported from the Appropriations Commit tee a deficiency bill, which contains an item of $333. 993 96 on account of a deficiency in the appropriation for inland mail transportation by railroads during the current fiscal year. This shows that the amount of noney actually required for this branch of the postal service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, is $24,017,650, and also that the estimate submitted by the Postmaster-General last year was #33,004 less than the amount which will be actually expended.

Now, even Chairman Henderson and his Dem colleagues cannot plead ignorance of the fact that the cost of inland mail transportation on ratiroads is steadily increasing year by year on account of the extension of railway lines over which the mails are carried and also because of the increase in the weight of the amount required for the current fiscal year, waite it is $747,307 less than the average yearly increase of expenditures on account of inland multi-transportation by railroad routes during the four years of President Cleveland's administration. ever, the experience of this year has demonstrated that last year's estimate of the P stmaster General was not only extremely conservative but remarkably accurate-falling short of actual requirements less than $34,000 in a total of about $24,000,000 used yet in their superior wisdom the Democratic state-men who constitute the majority of the House Committee on Postoffices have seen fit to reduce by $1,000,000 either gross ignorance or a desire to deceive by a false pretence of "economy." The amount recommended for the compensation of postmasters 1 815, 600,000, which is $250,000 less than the estimates. ons know, the compensation of postma-ters is fixed by law, and mainly consists-except in the cases of the comparatively insignificant number of pertunaters who receive salaries-of commissions on the value of the stamps cancelled in their respective offices. Hence, no action of the Postoffice Committee reducing the appropriations on that account can have any effect whatever upon the amount due to and received by postmasters as compensation for their services: it is as futile as a buil against a comet, because the money is paid out of the postal revenues according to law Of course, there is a natural and steady yearly in-crease in the total amount required for compensation crease in the total amount required for compensation of postmasters. During that halevon pe lot of "coulomy and reform" from 1885 to 1889, the average yearly increase in the appropriations for compensation of postmasters appropriations which were granted by Democratic imporities in the House-amounted to the sing sum of $\frac{3}{2}\cdots$, where the constitution is the House-amounted to the sing sum of $\frac{3}{2}\cdots$, in the House-amounted to the sing sum of $\frac{3}{2}\cdots$, in the House-amounted to the sing sum of $\frac{3}{2}\cdots$, in the House-amounted to the sing sum of $\frac{3}{2}\cdots$, in the House-amounted to the sing sum of $\frac{3}{2}\cdots$, in the House estimates has already been shown in regard to the Item for mail transportation—has asked for next year an increase of $600,000 over the appropriation for compensation of postmasters, a sum less by $77,000 than the average yearly increase during the Cleveland Administration; and the suplent statesm's who constitute the Democratic majority of the Postoffice Committee, knowing fall well that the money will have to be appropriated next year if not this year, have voted an increase which is $337,008 less than the average yearly increase during $\frac{3}{2}\tag{3}\tag{3}\tag{6}\tag{0}\tag{8}\tag{2}\tag{4}\tag{0}\tag{8}\tag{2}\tag{2}\tag{0}\tag{0}\tag{8}\tag{2}\tag{2}\tag{0}\tag{0}\tag{1}\tag{2}\tag{2}\tag{0}\tag{1}\tag{2}\tag{2}\tag{2}\tag{1}\tag{2}\ta of postmasters. ### BAILBOAD INTERESTS.

STORY OF A DEAL DISCREDITED

Pittsburg, Jan. 27.-Inquiries were made to-day the Pennsylvania Railroad officials in this city in regard to the alleged railroad deal whereby the Penn sylvania Company is to get through connections from the Atlantic to the Pacific by means of a union with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincey and the Pacific lines. The local officials professed entire ignorance of the natter and stated that the story could not be true According to the statements of the officials no such plan has ever been mentioned, and would not be more beneficial than the present traffic arrangement. The Pennsylvania road is closely allied with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and the Pacific lines, and purchase or lease would add little to its present facilities for reaching the Pacific Coast.
